CLAIMS 1-21 ARE PRESENTED FOR EXAMINATION

Applicants' Amendment and the declaration under 37 C.F.R. 1.132 filed October 5, 2004 have been received and entered into the application.

Accordingly, the specification at page 1 and claims 1-21 have been amended and claims 22-34 have been canceled.

In light of the amendments and declaration, the rejections of claims 22 and 23 under 35 U.S.C. §112, second paragraph; claims 1-3, 19 and 20 under 35 U.S.C. §102; claims 4 and 21 under 35 U.S.C. §103; and claims 22-34 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting, as set forth in the previous Office action dated June 8, 2004, are withdrawn.

Claim Rejection - 35 USC § 112, Second Paragraph

Claims 2, 3, 7 and 20 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims remain rejected because in the Markush group, the phrase "consisting essentially of" does not particularly point out the metes and bounds of the subject matter for which applicants seek patent protection.

It is improper to use the term "comprising" instead of "consisting of." Ex parte Dotter, 12 USPQ 382 (Bd. App. 1931). Further, absent a clear indication in the specification or claims of what the basic and novel characteristics actually are, "consisting essentially of" will be construed as equivalent to "comprising." See, e.g., PPG Industries v. Guardian Industries, 156 F.3d 1351,

Art Unit: 1614

1354, 48 USPQ2d 1351, 1355 (Fed. Cir. 1998). Here, the present specification and claims have been reviewed, but the Examiner finds no clear indication of what constitutes the basic and novel characteristics of the claimed invention. Thus, because claims 2, 3, 7 and 20 effectively include a Markush group in which the term "comprising" is recited, the claims are deemed to remain properly rejected.

It is suggested that "consisting essentially of" be changed to ---consisting of--- in order to overcome the rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 4-6, 8-19 and 21 are in condition for allowance.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicants are reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
